

NIS 2 training course

For employees

Introduction to the NIS 2 Directive

Overall objective: To strengthen the security of networks and information systems in the EU.

Critical sectors covered: Energy, transport, health, finance, digital infrastructure, etc.

Objectives of the NIS 2 Directive

Increasing the resilience of critical infrastructures.

Improving collaboration between Member States and the private sector.

Ensuring the protection of essential information and critical services.

Scope of the NIS 2 Directive

It covers both essential and important subjects.

It includes digital service operators and infrastructure providers.

Responsibilities of the Member States

Implement the directive through national regulations.

Create supervisory authorities to monitor implementation.